Who Is GOOB?

The Movie Monster Investigates... It's a 6th grader from Stevenson Ranch

Matthew Josten (below), a local 6th-grader, landed a role in 'Meet the Robinsons' (above).

Movie Monster: Hi Matthew. I understand you are in the Disney movie 'Meet the Robinsons.' How did you get in such a fun movie?

Matthew Josten: Lots of work and auditions. Movie Monster: What part did you play?

Matthew: Goob, the boy who ends up being the villain.

Movie Monster: Were there other kids in the movie?

Matthew: The only other kid part I knew about was Lewis.

Movie Monster: Did they pay you a lot of money?

Matthew: Well let's just say I can buy any video game I want, but I'm saving it for college.

Movie Monster: What grade are you in and what do you do after school?

Matthew: I'm in 6th grade and after school I always finish my homework, and then I play with my brother Tim, and sometimes I write movie scripts. My main hobbies are any beach activities, mainly surfing and skim boarding. I love to surf.

Movie Monster: How can other kids get in the movies or on TV?

Matthew: The Santa Clarita School of Performing Arts (661-222-7910) is a great way to learn about how to get into movies, TV shows and commercials and it takes lots of hard work and training. My motto is never give up.

Who Is Scooter? And Why Is He Swinging From A Rope?

The buzz around town is about a place called Scooter's Jungle. Why?

Scooter's Jungle is an awesome place for kids and adults to jump, play and have a great time on huge inflatables, structures and many other "active" games and toys! Did you know Scooter is a fun-loving monkey who lives at Scooter's Jungle and opens his doors to all to come play in his huge home? In fact, he just started school like a lot of kids in town... only Scooter goes to Fun University. After homework, Scooter likes to run and jump and can usually be found zooming down his 26-foot slide, swinging off his rope swing or playing air hockey with friends. Playing at kids birthday parties is his favorite pastime but, at special times, he opens his doors to anyone who would like to come play.

He sends out invitations by email, so if you're not already on the Scooter's Jungle list, go to www.scootersjungle.com and add your name to the contacts. That way, you won't miss a single day of play!!! So, if you'd like to hang out with Scooter and have a great birthday party or just come to play with your friends, give us a call or get on our mailing list as fast as you can so you won't miss a minute of fun with Scooter! We hope to see you soon in the "Jungle" and as Scooter says, "Have a Scooterific Day!"
